FORM INSTRUCTIONS

AFCW Form 10 Procedures. The AFCW Form 10 documents behavior to include substandard performance, with or without corrective action, as well as exceptional performance. It may be used to document a counseling session with or without demerits, confinements, tours or loss of passes. While squadron positions are used throughout the AFCW Form 10 for ease of explanation, the actual positions/chain-of-command will vary dependent upon where the cadet is currently assigned (squadron, group or wing level) and the rank of the cadet. For additional guidance, reference AFCWI 51-201, Administration of Cadet Discipline.

Section I - Personnel Information. Block 1-8: Self-explanatory. Cadets and permanent party can act as Reporting Officials (ROs) to initiate AFCW and may attach an MFR if applicable. The AFCW Form 10 and applicable documentation is forward to the cadet's squadron for processing. Electronic submission is encouraged to shorten processing times.

Section II - Incident Details. Who, what when, where and why to include any corrective actions already taken. ROs outside the cadet's chain of command will not make punishment recommendations.

Section III - Initial Processing. Blocks 1-3: Self-explanatory. The squadron First Sergeant will log the AFCW Form 10 and forward to the cadet's immediate supervisor (element leader/equivalent).

Section IV - Cadet Options. The element leader/supervisor will deliver the AFCW Form 10 to the cadet.
Blocks 1-3: Self-explanatory. The cadet may attach a memorandum providing a clear, concise statement addressing all information about the alleged conduct violation within three duty days.

Section V - Chain-of-Command Processing. The cadet's chain of command makes recommendation and initials and dates appropriate box.
The AFCW Form 10 must be reviewed one level above the awarding official for the recommended sanctions. The final sanction and level of awarding official will be determined based on the alleged offense. The Definition & Intent, Recommended Sanctions, and the appropriate Awarding Officials for both CDS and CARDS Offenses can be found in AFCWI 51-201, Administration of Cadet Discipline.

Section VI - Final Processing. Blocks 1-10: Self-explanatory. The awarding official, in the presence of the cadet's supervisor, will present the AFCW Form 10 to the cadet. The awarding official will counsel the cadet on the sanction/corrective action face-to-face; this counseling will include future expectations and appropriate feedback as a minimum. Both the cadet and awarding official will sign and date the AFCW Form 10.

Section VII - Final Coordination. Blocks 1-3: Self-explanatory. The AOC/AMT must review the finalized AFCW Form 10. If the RO is a permanent party member, the AOC/AMT will notify him/her with final disposition. If the RO is a cadet, the First Sergeant will notify him/her with final disposition. The AOC/AMT must report all category 3 and higher offenses to CWVVD.
